I'll never let you stand alone,
You'll always have my hand to hold.
Our lengthy talks never get old
You're gonna change the world you know

Chorus:

and I said...

Heyy sunshine don't you get yourself upset,
giving more than the world may ever know.
So tilt your head towards the sun,
you've got brighter days ahead.
Don't you worry that your life will be cut short.

I know you're scared but so am I.
We can read each others minds.
Through the windows in our eyes,
you know youve got a lot of life.

Chorus

All the joy and the pain that you gave from the tears
that run with the rain, yah.
You've been so brave though all the pain,
but lets not worry our lives away.
You know you've given life meaning.

And I said ...

Hey, hey sunshine
don't you worry that your life will be cut short.
Tilt your head towards the sun cause you've got brighter days ahead.
Don't you worry that you life will be cut short,
no, no, no.
