Home....home.....

there is only some always fuckin' up
you know i've been there ya i've been there

but way down deep inside and swallowed up my pride are you in there
tell me are you in there?

why do i lie?
time after time
can u forgive and forget i never thought you were serious when you said that i could never come home ya i could never come home hail 21

now look what you've become tell me are you happy?
are you happy?
one more lonely night
to die, to cry
for your love
now i give up

i've run out of time to repent for the things that i've done and i've said my life is a knife omg sometimes i feel like i'm better off dead caught in a lie high after high why can't you forgive and forget? i never thought it would come to this and now i can't.....home.... ever go home....home...

ya i could never go....home

now i could never ever go home(home) ya i could never ever go home(home) no i could never ever go home(home)
ya i could never go home
ya i could never go (home) home ya i could enver go home ya i could enver go home(home)
home home
ya i could never go home
ya i could never go home(home)
see i could never go home(home) never ever go home(home)
home
never ever go home
i could never go home
i could never go home
(spoken)
i could never go home

theres no place like home x5
the end
