And just like you said, I'm alone and I'm a child
So would you let me hold your heart?
Babys only need lies in your affection
Never got to touch that part

Is there anything of me you want
Because i would give you everything
But if your heart is cut out
I can give you nothing
And just like you said, I'm a fool and a creep and a scam
But wont you let me hold your heart?
Babys lying face down in the starlight
Never got to hold that heart

Unconditional is what i gave
And what it cost
You will never understand...
