I don't think I can stay awake now, for very much longer Conscience of stone can't withstand the pain now split wide open

You play dead, all that you want, cuz it's nothing when
I've done darker deeds than this, in my life
I broke my heart to watch it burst

The armor's gone and lost it's plait now, it makes me stronger
The rest have gone and lost their way (so what cuz) I'm still standing

You play dead, all that you want, cuz it's nothing when
I've done darker deeds than this, in my life
I broke my heart to watch it burst

Through the grief and all the bloodstained mess
Nothing ever penetrates me
Nothing makes me feel like I am alive

The error in assuming that I like to watch you crying (not true)
Is that I'm even really paying attention to you

I've done darker deeds than this, in my life
I broke my heart to watch it... burst... burst... burst... burst...
Through the grief and all the bloodstained mess
Nothing ever penetrates me
Nothing makes me feel like I am alive
