Don't break the heart that needs you
There's nowhere you can go but down if you do
To turn your back on someone
Will make you sorry, I can guarantee you
Don't make the fatal error
Of thinking you'll find someone better
Cause you won't
Don't break the heart that needs you
Don't, don't, don't

Is history too much for you to handle
A little too much wax burned off the candle
If curiosity has made you restless
Don't stray too far or else you may regret it

Don't break the heart that needs you
There's nowhere you can go but down if you do
To turn your back on someone
Will make you sorry, I can guarantee you
Don't make the fatal error
Of thinking you'll find someone better
Cause you won't
Don't break the heart that needs you
Don't, don't, don't

Is happiness your main consideration
You can't escape the pain and obligation
A break is what you want, well you won't get it
Your love can last but only if you let it

Don't break the heart that needs you
There's nowhere you can go but down if you do
To turn your back on someone
Will make you sorry, I can guarantee you
Don't make the fatal error
Of thinking you'll find someone better
Cause you won't
Don't break the heart that needs you
Don't, don't, don't
