When I breathe
It's like a song
You give me to sing
And I sing
Oh oh oh oh amazing

So hold me
When your here
I'll never be lonely
Your my favorite part of this story
So tell it again
And again to me

When I sleep
Every morning you give me
A new day to dream
And you dream with me

So hold me
When your here
I'll never be lonely
Your my favorite part of this story
So tell it again
And again

I love when you hold me
When your here
I'll never be lonely
Your my favorite part of this story
So tell it again
And again to me

My heart is home
You're the light inside my soul
How deep is your love
You make me see
What it looks like to be free
I need your love

So hold me
When your here

I'll never be lonely
Your my favorite part of this story
So tell it again
And again to me

I love when you hold me
When your here
I'll never be lonely
Your my favorite part of this story
So tell it again
And again to me

Tell it again
And again to me
