Album: I TO SKY (2002)

Stumbled round, you I found
Adored your glory, you my story
Then you let me down, let down
You know we're the same

Once I frowned, then I found
The one I love, as if from above
You smile at me, I smile at you
We were the same

You are not an enemy
You are not an enemy
Gentle as the sky
Please don't ask me why

You are not an enemy
You are not an enemy
Gentle as the sky
Please don't ask me why I..... cry
