Keith Wonder Freestyle

(Check me out)

Times are getting hard, feel it in every bar.
They try to tell me, "Yo Keith you are going far"
Broke on the Boulevard, this is how Im livin
Just another reason why I'm rapping every minute. Yes
Best believe yea we making moves
Never, hit the snooze like its back to school
I'm caught up in the moment, don't know where I'm going, I keep on record, I got something to prove.
And Lord please forgive me for this life I choose.
I know, Its been a while since I talked to you.
But you the only one thats close to me.
You the only one that knows how my life is supposed to be.
So I'm searching for the better days, that pays better ways than a raise on a minimum wage
And to advance the stage,
I gotta pedal to the medal to a level from a place thats
worsen than the ghetto.
Imma bright young fellow, I'll get it by any means.
A slumville boy, with big city dreams,
But everything aint really what it seems
What we read in magazines and see on TV screens.
Man im here trying to do what I can.
Making all these songs, working on a plan.
Cause I just think my next move is better than your best move and maybe in the end you'll finally understand.
When I pass up on em
Hey tell me why you sleep up on em?
You cant see all these dreams I chase,
but in the end, you want me to remember your face.
Plano is the city, my destination town
I see a lot of fakes, when I look around Some dirty brown workers they've been working on the ground
I was born in Zimbabwe, but i gotta hold you down Damn, no mean to provoke, when they chill they smoke, take school as a joke
And me Im just broke from my heart to my pocket

Bet I'll be happy when I'm off like a rocket.
Man I'm just hoping for a miracle.
Cause some say I'm so deep so lyrical
And some say I'm so sick to the critical point
I like it when you feeling my joints rather be somebody
lose the money
Cause what's a deal when you tryna be legendary?
When you tryna be legendary What's a deal when you trying.....?
