"U Can Take Me Up"

Visit "U Can Take Me Up" on MotoLyrics.com

Somehow I need to light up the fire
And you don't wanna get in a trance
But if you believe in all I require
Destiny is in your hands
If I ever lose my faith I must be justified, oh woh oh
If I ever win it back I must be glorified

You can take me, you can take me, take me up, uh yeah
yeah
Somewhere I feel you can take me higher
And you don't wanna give it a chance
But if you believe in all my desires
Nothing will slip through our hands
If I ever lose my faith I must be justified
If I ever win it back I must be satisfied
