Uh yeah... Uh yeah...

I'd go the distance even though you seem so far
Days of confusion just tell me who you are
I sit alone at night
When I could be with you
And it could be so right Baby it's up to you
You know it's true yeah

Uh yeah... Uh yeah...

Do you remember the scent of my perfume
Illuminating your love against the moon
I see it clearly now
I'm caught in a landslide
And there's just one way out
There's nothing I can do
You know it's true

Whenever you're near me
When ever you call
My heart beats a message
The writing's on the wall
And if God still makes angels
Than that says it all
Cause whenever you're near me hey hey

No matter where you are
The distance is no (obstacle I'm landing to you)
No matter who you are
Say you're my only (devotion)
You're falling from the stars
You're my only (constellation)

You read my soul
The book is my heart
And it leads to a stand
Where your body's the start

Uh yeah... Uh yeah...

You read my heart
You read my soul
Whenever you call
Whenever you're near me
You read my heart
You read my soul
Whenever you call
Whenever you're near me
