Stop stop stop, hold on
Why won't you say what's really on your mind?
'Cause if you cry anymore
How will we ever get to know what time it is?

If I could see what life was like
Without you here by my side
I know that sh*t would hurt
Could I move on, swallow my pride
And disappear far from here
I don't think that I can!

Every day expires
Why we gotta try it
Stop this love from dying
We ain't gotta lie yeah
Say it's alright
So I guess we gotta try it

'Cause if we talk about it later
Later will be too late
Then we'll go our separate ways
Love is on our side yeah
Then we'll be alright
So I guess we gotta try it

Girl we've got to talk
It's time that we both recognize the truth
Bits from the good and bad
So we won't ever forget what time it is

If I could see what life was like
Without you here by my side
I know that sh*t would hurt
Could I move on, swallow my pride
Disappear far from here
I don't think that I can!

Every day expires
Why we gotta try it
Stop this love from dying
We ain't gotta lie yeah

Say it's alright
So I guess we gotta try it

'Cause if we talk about it later
Later will be too late
Then we'll go our separate ways
Love is on our side yeah
Then we'll be alright
So I guess we gotta try it, try it

Seasons change
And days must come to an end, an end
It turned my heart
And I ain't even know I let you in
You know you're not alone
The feeling's mutual
A world away from happiness or tears
Now it's only right
I share the rest of my life with you
With you, with you, with you

Every day expires
Say it's alright

'Cause if we talk about it later
Later will be too late
Then we'll go our separate ways
Love is on our side yeah
Then we'll be alright
So I guess we gotta try it

I just wanna let you know that I
I lo, I lo, I lo, I love you, love you
