And I promise I will be there you know I will
And I promise I will be there you know I will
And I promise I will be there you know I will
And I promise I will be there you know I will

He's not a healer, he's a pain
But I can be the one to make it better
Like a cloud baby, he's the rain
But I can be the one to change the weather

So go on and dry your eyes
There's no more tears to cry
It's just you and I forever, yeah

And I know your trust is broken in two
Even though your trust is broken in two
Girl I promise I'll do whatever I can do
To keep you, ooh
Keep you, I promise to keep you
I will, I'll keep you
I promise to keep you

I know he hurt you, like a knife
But I can be the one to bring you back to life
He's a cheater, and a liar
But you can trust me when I say I'll treat ya right

So go on and dry your eyes
There's no more tears to cry

It's just you and I forever, yeah

And I know your trust is broken in two
Even though your trust is broken in two
Girl I promise I'll do whatever I can do
To keep you, ooh

And I promise I will be there you know I will
And I promise I will be there you know I will
And I promise I will be there you know I will
And I promise I will be there you know I will

And I know your trust is broken in two
Even though your trust is broken in two
Girl I promise Iâll do whatever I can do
To keep you, ooh
Keep you, I promise to keep you
I will, Iâll keep you
I promise to keep you
Girl I promise Iâll do whatever I can do
To keep you, ooh

And I promise I will be there you know I will
And I promise I will be there you know I will
And I promise I will be there you know I will
And I promise I will be there you know I will
I will
