Im only one call away from you
Im only one call away from you
And when you dont know what to do
Just pick up the phone
You know
This isnt good bye, not even a break
I know its not one that we wanted to take
But ill be home, soon
I hope youll wait for me
Like I wait for you, ooo
Its only gunna be a while, a while
Cant be away from your smile long
No matter where I go
I wont let us go
Im already missing my best friend
Chorus:
Im only one call away from you
Im only one call away from you
And when you dont know what to do
Just pick up the phone
You know
Im never too far
Im never too far
Im never too far, from you
Im never too far
Im never too far
Im never too far, from you
This isn't goodbye but your crying
Wanna wipe the tears from your eyes
Girl Im trying
To hold you down down down
But its hard, its so hard.
PreChorus
Its only gunna be a while, a while
Cant be away from your smile long
No matter where I go
I wont let us go
Im already missing my best friend
Chorus:
Im only one call away from you
Im only one call away from you
And when you dont know what to do

Just pick up the phone
You know
Im never too far
Im never too far
Im never too far, from you
Im never too far
Im never too far
Im never too far, from you

No one said that this would be easy
Im missing you so much, girl believe me
No one said that this would be easy
Im missing my best friend
