Music and lyrics by jo davidson

If I told you all the thoughts that I have
Would it make you happy or would it make you sad
You and i, already so close
You're the one I want to know the most
For all the times we do say
For all the times we don't
For all the words we will say
For all the words we won't

Chorus

I don't want the secrets to build up between us
Even if we stand or even if we fall
I don't want the secrets to build up between us
Every crevice started as a crack in the wall

Verse 2

Can we go deeper than this
And can a kiss be more than a kiss
I like to tell my secrets at night
We are full of darkness and we're full of light
For all the times we do say
For all the times we don't

I don't want the secrets to build up between us
Even if we stand or even if we fall
I don't want the secrets to build up between us
Every crevice started as a crack in the wall

Bridge

Will you be afraid to have it so real
Can you handle all the things that I feel?

Chorus

Oh I don't want the secrets to build up between us
Even if we stand or even if we fall
I don't want the secrets to build up between us
Every crevice started as a crack in the wall
No I don't want the secrets to build up between us
Even if we stand or even if we fall
Funny how a house is always torn down slowly

Every crevice started as a crack in the wall.
