You wait your whole life for one moment
And if it ever comes, you pray your eyes are open
To see the answer to love's mystery
I think I see it now right in front of me

I know what I'm doing for the rest of my life
I'm waving goodbye to love, the way I knew it
And I'm taking you with me
Welcome to the rest of my life, life
The rest of my life, life

It used to scare me, that word forever
But now it makes me smile because my heart knows better
So what if love's been less than perfect
Now that I found you, baby it was worth it

I know what I'm doing for the rest of my life
I'm waving goodbye to love, the way I knew it
And I'm taking you with me
Welcome to the rest of my life, life
To the rest of my life, life

I can't believe, I ever thought I'd never Find something so true
I'm jumping in forever
Thanks to you, baby, thanks to you

I know what I'm doing for the rest of my life
I'm waving goodbye to love, the way I knew it
And I'm taking you with me
Welcome to the rest of my life

Yeah, I know what I'm doing, oh, for the rest of my life
I'm waving goodbye to love, the way I knew it
And I'm taking you with me
Welcome to the rest of my life, life
To the rest of my life, life
