I need someone, whoa
How I need someone
I need someone
Someone like you, you, you

Today my love has gone away
He won't be back he wants it that way
And I need someone to take his place
Someone with a warm embrace

He promised me he would be true
Yeah he said I love no one but you
But here I stand I'm all alone
With nothing to do but to stay at home

And I need someone
Oh, how I need someone
Yes, and I need someone
Someone like you you you

Yeah, we used to travel all around an around
Yeah, we always went from town to town
But since my baby been gone away
I haven't had, haven't had a happy day
