I warned you all the time to get yourself in line
You never did it
I took you everywhere, no one else could bear
All your bullshit
Your headtrips were a bore I shoulda dumped you long before
You're a dim wit

When I took you out, your ugly, dirty mouth
Was like a sewer
All you did was moan, so I left you on your own
I said screw you, I put it to you
Now you're coming back tryin' to get into the act
You fool you, you think I'm stupid

Scumbag, scumbag, you don't leave well enough alone
Baby, you're a scumbag, you're rotten to the core
You're the biggest fool that I've ever known

Every time it seemed we had everything we dreamed
For the choosin'
You never had enough the way you made life rough
Sent me cruzin'
I gave a disposition 'bout your rotten disposition
You're a loser and you're losin', ha ha

Scumbag, scumbag, you don't leave well enough alone
Baby, you're a scumbag, don't need you no more
You're the biggest fool that I've ever known

Scumbag, scumbag, you don't leave well enough alone
Baby, you're a scumbag, a beggar and a [Incomprehensible]
You're the biggest fool that I've ever known

Yeah, uh huh
You are, yeah, uh huh
Oh
