(Jett-Child)

Here we are playin' those games
Well I'm runnin' outta patience
And I can't stand the strain
Seems like nothin' ever changes
So I'm gettin' out fast
Darlin' our future is a thing of the past
I tried to leave you so many times
Was it hope or was it weakness
That made me so blind
Don't go promisin' and dreamin'
When you know it won't last
Darlin' our future is a thing of the past
Hey when it was good it was great
And when it got bad it was too late
The story's really sad ain't it. . .
Goodbye. . . I won't sit here and cry
Goodbye. . . I really mean it this time
You're the first one who touched me
You're the only one to know

All my secrets and desires
So it's hard to let go
But I been feelin' trapped
So I better move fast
Darlin' our future is a thing of the past
Hey, I didn't want to end up this way
There's really nothin' else you can say too late
Hey save it for another day
Goodbye. . . I won't lay down and die
Goodbye. . . I really mean it this time
Hey, don't feel so bad it's O.K.
There's no used in fightin' with fate
It's better just to break away. . .
Goodbye. . . I won't stay here and cry
Goodbye. . . I really mean it this time
Goodbye. . . I won't lay down and die
Goodbye. . . see ya
