Written by John Popper

The sun is warm as the day is long Just got the feeling I can do no wrong Got a long way to walk can't afford my next meal,
I tell a few lies, but my hunger is real and it...

Chorus:

won't mean thing in 100 years no it won't mean a thing in 100 years

Mademoiselle tell me do you play well if she shakes her head well then that's OK

I watch her walk away in haste there's just no accounting for some people's taste and it...

Chorus

Big angry men in the doorway there Just keep on walking like I don't care Why you giving such an evil eye could it be you were ignored by every passerby
and it...

Chorus

Play in the park for tobacco and food then I excuse myself but they think I'm rude Tourist don't want me to end his show but this colorful attraction got place to go
and it...

Chorus

Sit at the pier watch the sun go down Another lost little boy in a big old town I want to laugh, I want to cry but no matter how hard I may try Chorus twice
