Why do I keep my mind
On you all the time?
And I don't even know you
(I don't know you)

Why do I feel this way?
Thinking about you everyday
And I don't even know you
(I don't know you)

Take me in your arms
Thrill me with all of your charms

And I'll take to the sky on a natural high
Loving you more till the day I die
Take to the sky on a natural high
Loving you more

If you have anything to do
Call me and I will do it for you
And I don't even know you
(I don't know you)

If I only had one wish to give
That wish would be for you to live
Forever and ever
(I don't know you)

When I see you on the street
My heart skips a beat

And I'll take to the sky on a natural high
Loving you more till the day I die
Take to the sky on a natural high
Loving you more

I'm gonna try to do
All the things you want me to
If you'll just give me a chance
(I don't know you)

I'm trying to make something

Out of a nothing romance
And I don't even know you
(I don't know you)

Take me in your arms
Thrill me with all of your charms

And I'll take to the sky on a natural high
Loving you more till the day I die
Take to the sky on a natural high
Loving you more

Take to the sky on a natural high
(I wanna take to the sky)
Loving you more till the day I die

(Till I die, baby)
I'll take to the sky on a natural high
Loving, loving you

Take to the sky on a natural high
Loving you more till the day I die
Take to the sky on a natural high
Loving, loving you

Take to the sky on a natural high
Loving you more till the day I die
Take to the sky on a natural high
