Daylight fails to fade here one by one
Only you are the one I've been dreaming of Hold your hand out let me take you to that other place I know
One I know well be alone

Everytime the sun will rise
Those stars above
Grab the clouds
Start the lies
And then start to cry

I hold you a tragedy in my skies
All I do love is pray for rain with a prayer for rain

Only the sun can beat you all alone
We fit so perfect and now I keep letting go
If your wise enough to see
If your kind to all that be
If your here then now I know

Everytime the sun will rise
Those stars above
Grab the clouds
Start the lies
And then start to cry

I hold you a tragedy in my skies
All I do love is pray for rain with a prayer for rain

The sky is falling
With thunderbolts of roars
The rain is coming
And all I do is pray
I hold you a tragedy in my skies
All I do love is pray for rain with a prayer for rain
