If only the time could split apart
I'm leaving this
Caught in the lines with so much heart
And only if you could take the time
With no reasoning
We could go on and on and on

So show me the way you fell to pieces
Show me the way you fall apart
Time is the glass your sands are breaking
Show me the way you fell apart

Now looking back at all the times
And your fake led rhymes
Surely the time would take your reasons
And gut them out front line
Simply the best is all I asked of you
But you can't let go
This song could go on and on and on and on

So show me the way you fell to pieces
Show me the way you fall apart
Time is the glass your sands are breaking
Show me the way you fell apart
