Chorus

When I come into Your house
And I lay my burdens down
As I stop to look around
And Your loveliness invokes me to bow down
When I'm in Your house

Verse I

Looking at You I seem to forget
All my failed dreams and regrets
As I take in so picturesque
The wonderful view of Your holiness
As Your glory fills each space
I'm amazed that this could be my dwelling place

Repeat Chorus

Verse II

As the storm clouds gather high
And the strong winds start to blow
Afternoon sky is black as night
That's when life feels so dark and cold
I lift my head, then my eyes
And I see You standing there
My dwelling place

Repeat Chorus (Repeat)

Bridge

You are my dwelling place
You are a strong and solid tower
A shelter for my heart
You are
You are
(Repeat)
