Yeah
I'm watching you turning away
I wish I could turn back the hands of time to yesterday
I know I was wrong
I made a mistake
Now the only one I love is going away
Just when you're leaving
Just when you're leaving
If I could find the words to say that will make you stay
Just when you're leaving
Just when you're leaving
I played you just like a game
But this player plays the fool at the end of the day
I know that I changed
I wish I had grown I wish that I could make you see what I'm going through
Just when you're leaving
Just when you're leaving
If I could find the words to say

that will make you stay
Just when you're leaving
Just when you're leaving
I wish that you would understand
I don't understand myself
I guess I'm way too complicated I wish that you would take my hand and say that there is no one else aaah haa
Just when you're leaving
Just when you're leaving
If I could find the words to say
that will make you stay
Just when you're leaving

Could you find the words to say they will make me stay
Just when you're leaving
Just when you're leaving Just when you're leaving
