Put on your shoes
People used to tell me
Now they think it's like a style
Of some kind or something

How do I explain that I just don't believe in All this purposely for
The world's perception of me

This is only rubbish put eloquently
Like all the gothic poetry
Kids are writing
From the high school scene

Hey let's start running
For no reason
Let's start laughing
Without any jokes
When did we need excuses to do what we do I won't explain myself
Wouldn't you agree that sounds nice

That's right
We can go out
Watch a movie
Climb out my window
In the middle of the night
And when the world's asleep we shall dance like mad
amusement only
Wouldn't you agree that sounds nice

So you mean you just Don't like wearing shoes
I've got sweaty feet
I think I've made my point

If you truly like it then
It won't mean a thing
If it's a trend or if it's banned
By the fashion police

All the things I do I don't do them for you
I'm not down to earth not Planning to be
It's all hypocrisy

Hey let's start running
For no reason
Let's start laughing
Without any jokes
explain myself
Wouldn't you agree that sounds nice

That's right
Watch a movie
Climb out my window

That's right
Watch a movie
Climb out my window
