You dress in your business suit.
You negotiate contracts.
Every morning you tie your tie,
You get ready to evade tax
You gave me your name card.
I tucked it neatly inside my brain.
You're funny, you're charming,
Though I'm at your daughter's age.
O, I must be in love.
Though it's an ugly world,
But I feel joy in every step.
O, I can't get enough of this giddiness
When we shake hands and nice to meet you, too.

You dress in your business suit.
You negotiate contracts.
Every morning you tie your tie,
You get ready to evade tax
You gave me your name card.
I tucked it neatly inside my brain.
You're funny, you're charming,
Though I'm at your daughter's age.
O, I must be in love.
Though it's an ugly world,
But I feel joy in every step.
O, I can't get enough of this giddiness
When we shake hands and nice to meet you, too.

You dress in your business suit.
You negotiate contracts.
Every morning you tie your tie,
You get ready to evade tax
