Started out just as friends never thought that we would end up like this now my heart was for you cant believe that i found a love so true you dont care for me , you dont understand what you meant to me when you were my man now its over and you don't comprehend that there is no one no baby please take me back

i don't know who you are your not who you used to be i rememeber when you used to look at me differently now you dont talk to me , boy you cant even see

i miss who you really are i cant see how you've gone this far you dont even know me now i see i need to leave boy you just lied to me , your not the one for me now im here all alone you wont know cuz you dont care at all now i said to myself that my love was for you and no one else

still i want you here , but it interfears with the way i feel after all these years you dont seem to be what you were to me no more baby just go ahead and leave

i dont know who you are

you changed your ways your not the same i wish that we could go back to yesterday
