Blood

Blood

For your lust of me

I cannot stop the pain

Why did you fuck with me?

And now I'm drowning inside

Though you are nothing to me

You wanted to pay

You want like a saint

You are like a saint

For these words from your rest from your broken skies

Suspended farther, Suspended your body

Now these words will die day in black is this what you wanted?

These lies seep in to death, You conserve to much of your shit

You become unwanted

Suspend your body now these words are dead

Forever dying

You fuck with me?

Damn right

Now you are nothing and I'll fuck you over

Die again, drowning today.

Someone

Is someone away

You lie, lie to me!?

I will remain

My regret will remain

Remain a walking corpse,

No, my regret

Lie not now

Not my regret
