Hell breaks open with the drop of a synthetic plague with flames marching
And consuming the roofs of thousands.
Frigid ammunition streams and buries into the howling blameless, butchering
Them to their feet.
Immersed with guilt the armed horse tread through their unspeakable Execution parade.
Honor and acclaim? Simply masked by falsified journalism of a gutted Soldier.
Now fallaciously lay the flag on your lifeless heroes with a delusion of Holy devotion and pride.
Spread and unfurl your poster boy deception to the mindless believers.
Immorally manipulate the ignorant swarms for the sake of soiled wealth.
