"No Way, No How"
Jocelyn Enriquez

Used to think true happiness
Had passed me by
Tried to ignore the loneliness
Kept me up through the night
Until the day I saw your face
What a sight to see
That heaven saved the best for last
And sent you to me, yeah, yeah
And now I'm never letting you go

I thank the stars above for guiding you home

No way, no how
Will I ever change my mind and say goodbye
I know I've finally found what I've been waiting for
Right here, right now
I know that you're the one
Beyond the shadow of a doubt
And I'll never leave your side, no way, no how
I've made mistakes in love before

And I have paid with my tears
Tossed in the sea of emptiness
Seemed the storm would not clear
And then you came and rescued me
And you jumped right in
You made me safe with your tenderness
And warm with your kiss

So then you grabbed my hand and pulled me to shore
I could never ask you for more

Will I ever change my mind and say goodbye
No way, no how
I know I've finally found what I've been waiting for
I know that you're the one
And I'll never leave your side, no way, no how

Beyond the shadow of a doubt
You brought back the meaning to my life

My soul was feeling lost but now I'm found
Turned darkness into light
I believe in miracles again
That true love won't end

So listen to these words that I vow, I vow, I vow
No way, no how
Will I ever change my mind and say goodbye
I know I've finally found what I've been waiting for
Beyond the shadow of a doubt
I know that you're the one
And I'll never leave your side, no way, no how
