

Job For A Cowboy

"Signature Of Starving Power"

Let the money glutton kings recommence their laws
with a hushed signature
Of starving power.
Silently wielding their supremacy blindly over the heads of a shackled Empire.
A thirst so immense that it violently chokes the majority rule to have Absolutely no clout.
A nation stripped naked of all rights from the fingertips of ravenous
Dictating wolves.
So simple for them to justify, so utterly effortless to execute.
The crowned kings spoon feed a crippling and fear
mongering agenda.
With new commandments birthed and implanted, they compose phobia's from the Running blood of thousands.
Stand before your corporate God's, intoxicated on money and power.
