Truth is eternally treason in the empire- empire of lies
For our empire muzzles the lips of a savior who howls corruption

His exploration of reality has ruffled the feathers of a starving vulture

Classified america breeds and multiplies, vastly shrouded from us and even

Itself

A dark bureaucracy devoted to protecting us lurks beneath our corroding

Democratic practice

How will anyone create change when we cannot see inside this dark machine?

Classified america breeds and multiplies, vastly
shrouded from us and even

Itself

An era where a military-political demon is hidden from all scrutiny

We must ask ourselves... but who watches the watchmen?

Truth is eternally treason in the empire of lies

Truth is eternally treason in the empire of lies

shrouded from us and.

Even... and even itself

Classified america breeds and multiplies
