So did you miss me? ?Cause I've been gone all night
Surely you had noticed, you know this is not Just a mystery, I've figured out your style
Taking any blame leaves you feeling unbalanced

So I left the faucet in the bathroom on Who?s to say I'm just another stereotype?
A woman's point of view has never been so cold hearted
As you are, when you?re ready to fight

Any lower and we fall out of love
The lucky one will be the first to die
I?m stuck in a moment that I've been dreaming of
No, moving on

I'm coming home if you?re ready or not
I'll re-write a story with a happier ending
A blurry target but I'm taking the shot
I want it all

So are you listening? Did I make it on time?
The clocks illuminating it's the time of the night
The worlds wishing on 4 vertical lines
We're hanging by a thread, yeah, we'll be here a while

So I left the lights in the kitchen on Who?s to say I'm living a predictable guy?
Circumstance has got another problem to solve They're never gonna catch us, now, we're running to hide

I left a path but you covered it up
The lucky one will be the first they find
I?m stuck in a moment that I've been dreaming of
No, moving on

I'm coming home if you?re ready or not
I'll re-write a story with a happier ending
A blurry target but I'm taking the shot
I want it all

Bending a rule leads to breaking a heart
I'm playing elevator music with my mind set ascending
To 30 floors, I'm reaching the top
I want it all

So the blame lies on me for dragging it on
But who's the one responsible for turning the knife
The post-attack backstabbing is part of your own tradition
Handed down, truth be told, so you told only lies

Any lower and we fall out of love
But the lucky one will be the one alive
I'm stuck in a moment that I've been dreaming of
No, moving on, no

I'm coming home if you're ready or not
I'll re-write a story with a happier ending
A blurry target but I'm taking the shot
I want it all

Bending a rule leads to breaking a heart
I'm playing elevator music with my mind set ascending
To 30 floors, I'm reaching the top
I want it all, all, all
