I just wanna dedicate this song to all the lovers in the world tonight
And I expect that to be the whole world because everybody needs someone
Or something to love
Yeah
When it's cold outside
Girl, who are you holding
You'll be holding me
Well, well, well, well, well
Said if y'all don't mind
Can I talk about this woman I have She's always complaining about the things she ain't got
And the things her girlfriend's got
But lady I will let you know
I can't be in two places at one time

Chorus:

If you think you're lonely now
Ooh yeah
Wait until tonight, girl
You better wait til tonight
Yeah, baby
Wait until tonight girl
If you think you're lonely now
Wait until tonight girl
I'll be lonely, yes I will
Wait until tonight, girl
You better wait until tonight

When skeletons come out of your closet
And chase you all around the room
Memories sound like a ghost
And if you is scared
Talk to me, baby

If you think you're lonely now
Wait until tonight, girl
Wait until tonight baby
Wait until tonight girl

You better wait until tonight
Do you believe me baby

Ain't it funny how tables turn
When things ain't goin your way
When love walks out
And pain walks in
You can't help to say

If you think you're lonely now
Wait until tonight, girl
If you think you're lonely now
You better wake up, yeah
If you think you're lonely now
If you think you're lonely now
Hold on, ooh yeah
Ooh, yeah

I wanna testify
I wanna testify
I wanna testify to ya
I just got one thing to say

If you think you're lonely now
Baby, yeah
(repeat chorus until fade)
