Choices, even though You knew the lines
You'd have to cross for me, You made them anyway Voices, as You knelt there in the garden 'neath the olive tree
You heard me call Your name I cannot pretend to understand it all
But Heaven knew the reason You were there

It was all about a Man, it was all about a cross
It was all about the Blood that was shed so I would not be lost
It was all about the love that was bigger than a life
It was all about a freedom that was given through Your sacrifice
'Cause You would rather die than to ever live without me

Helpless, that's humanity without Your saving grace so misled Selfless, You could have called ten thousand Angels Down to take Your place but You took mine instead I cannot pretend to understand it all
But Heaven knew the reason You were there

It was all about a Man, it was all about a cross
be lost
It was all about a freedom that was given through Your
'Cause You would rather die than to ever live without me, oh

A greater love has no one than this But He would lay His life down for His friends

It was all about a Man, it was all about a cross
be lost
It was all about a freedom that was given through Your

'Cause You would rather die than to ever live without
me
Than to ever live without me
