Shining brightly, like a star
How I wonder who you are
Up above the world so high
Like a diamond in disguise
I can see you
Though you're miles away
I can feel you
In your place
I can see you
I can see you

You're running blindly through a field
Never feeling what is real
Losing sight of all you are, but

Still you shine,
just like a star

And you're on your way
Your own way
(Said) you're on your way

Where you goin', I wanna go
Take me with you, I need to know
Treading lightly but you're still on top
They set the trap but you never got caught
You're a tiny grain of sand
Falling slowly through the hands of a bigger plan
A Bigger Plan
Yes, a bigger plan
It's The Biggest Plan

And you're on your way
Your own way
(Said) you're on your way

Where you goin', I wanna go
Take me with you, I need to know

Whatcha doin', what's your plan?
Take me with you, by the hand
You're on your way

Your own way
