

Joe 90 "Speak"

Visit "Speak" on MotoLyrics.com

It's a crime not to speak
Who you talkin' to
It's a crime not to speak
Who you listenin' to
It's a crime not to talk
When your words sprung a leak
It's a crime not to listen

Words become false if they're holding you down
Words become forced to leave
Words become crossed if they're holding you down
Words are not right (lies)
It's a crime not to listen
Not a crime not to be heard

It's a crime not to talk
It's a crime not to hear
It's a crime not to words disappear
It's a crime not to speak
It's a crime not to hear
It's a crime not to listen
