It's already written that today will be one to remember
Feeling's the same as being outside of the law

Had to cry today, yeah yeah
Well, I saw your sign and I missed you there
Missed you there

I'm taking the chance to see the wind in your eyes while
I listen
You say you can't reach me but you want everyone to be free, yeah

Had to cry today, yeah yeah
Well, I saw your sign and I missed you there
Missed you there

Taking the chance to see the wind in your eyes while I listen
Say you can't reach me but you want everyone to be free, yeah, yeah

Had to cry today, yeah, yeah yeah
Well, I saw your sign and I missed you there

Had to cry today, yeah, yeah yeah
Well, I saw your sign and I missed you there
Missed you there
