Tell me how high , cotton has to grow
Tell me how high , cotton has to grow
'Fore you get a man with a rusty blade and a hoe

Tell me who's that on , when i can get no ride
Tell me who's that on , when i can get no ride
That's why i get antsy , and steal a kiss before i die

I've been knocked down , stood up , all in the name of goodbye's
I've been locked down , beat up , all in the name of goodbye's Mmmmmm
And i don't mind stealing the last kiss before i die

Tell me how long , supposed to keep a good man down
Tell me how long , supposed to keep a good man down
'Fore he packs his suitcase , and get's the hell outta town

Now that i'm gone , who's gonna work the land
Now that i'm gone , who's gonna work the land
Just to make sure this , Dirt don't turn into sand

I've been knocked down , stood up , all in the name of
goodbye's
I've been locked down , beat up , all in the name of
goodbye's Mmmmmm
And i don't mind stealing the last kiss before i die hey yeah

I've been knocked down , stood up , all in the name of
goodbye's Mmmmmm
I've been locked down , beat up , all in the name of
goodbye's
And i don't mind stealing the last kiss before i die
And i don't mind stealing the last kiss before i die
And i don't mind stealing the last kiss before i die

Mmmmmmm Mmmmm Mmmm
Mmm Mmm Mm Mmmmm Mmmm
