I hold out hope but it stalls
Soon the last curtain falls
A hundred years of past
Has spoken

All the great warriors are sown
Into history's flag
Like a book of the seven seals
Of the heroes past

Through fires, revolutions
Dust storms and conclusions
Will the show go on tonight
One more time?

I fight on, fight on
I'm the last matador of Bayonne
For tomorrow, this place falls
Into silence

There's a path traveled by many
Say one more prayer for my family
Like a ship without a sail
Cast adrift

I fight on, fight on
I'm the last matador of Bayonne
A hundred years of past
Now are gone
