Waking up on a monday,
treatin' it like a sunday
Mr. Sun's back and he's scratching your back for me What a perfect day to be wake you up from a nice dream to take you out for an ice cream Spend the day on a ferris wheel by the sea What a picture perfect way to give me your heart, I won't let go

I'm hoping that someday, someday, I'm gonna put a smile on that pretty face Someway, someway, we'll still be dancin' when we're old and we're gray
But I'm looking at you from a distance,
You don't know what you're missin' girl Someday, someway, I know it's gonna be okay

Oh I know it's gonna be ok

Strolling under the boardwalk, driftin' off to the sound of the band oh Nine o'clock comes and nine o'clock's gone away Got a date at Ricks cafe, hold your hand in the back row.
Steal a kiss in the shadows, as time goes by I know we will be a perfect love story
I gave you my heart, so don't let go . . .
