That yellow dress you wore
When we went dancing Sunday nights
That smile you give me
In the movies when they dim the lights
Iâ€™ve tried in vain to wash the memâ€™ry from my brain
I can't forget you
And thatâ€™s what love will do
Thatâ€™s what love will do

The spins we took together
On my beat-out motorbike
The look your pa would give me
When we got back late at night
Iâ€™ve tried in vain to wash the memâ€™ry from my brain
I canâ€™t forget you
And thatâ€™s what love will do
Thatâ€™s what love will do
I never see you except now and then
But when I see you
The longing starts all over again

Put out the candle
And tomorrow it burns bright again
But when I lost you
It could never be put right again
What can I do?
My memâ€™ry wonâ€™t let go of you
I canâ€™t forget you
And thatâ€™s what love will do
Thatâ€™s what love will do

Iâ€™ve tried in vain to wash the memâ€™ry from my brain
I canâ€™t forget you
And thatâ€™s what love will do
Thatâ€™s what love will do
