Who I am actually
What position do I hold in your heart
If you don't say it out clear
You're just letting our love dangle in the mist
Love is annoying
Sometimes near, Sometimes far
Letting people chase after
Chased half a day
And yet you won't even say a word of apology

*Chorus

I walk forward
Heads down tears rolling back
Walking continuously
Never turning back
Hoping that you will find me
It wasn't as I wished
My hopes were let down but I still believe
That you do understand me

I swear a thousand times
That once I leave this time
You will never get me back
Although my heart hurts
It's still better than suffering so much humiliation
I wait and wait
Memories of your good keep popping into my head
After so much waiting
You still won't even say the word BABY to comfort me

*Chorus

One front, One back
You stay silently behind me (Yeah yeah yeah)
Front front, back back
Hoping that you will hold my hand (Yeah yeah yeah)

I walk forward, raising my head
Wiping away tears and keep walking forward
Walking continuously
Never turning back
Hoping that you will find me

In my dreams I've searched a thousand times for him
Hoping that it will be reality
I don't want to leave
My heart can't be controlled

I walk forward, raising my head
Wiping away tears
Walking continuously
Never turning back
Hoping that you will find me
In my dreams I've searched a thousand times for him
Hoping that it will be reality
I still believed (Still believed)
That you do understand me

*Chorus repeat
