It took five women to getcha off of my mind
It took five months, a plenty good wasted time
But it just took five minutes when I saw your face again
To fall in love all over, I guess with you, I'll never win

March was cold in more ways than one
I went down to the nightclub lookin' for the sun
Lookin' for the light that could brighten up a day
That's been darker than a hole since you went away

April usually brings showers
This time it was a hurtin' kind
This woman said she wanted my baby
I told her I'd have to be deaf, dumb, and blind
To fall in love with someone, someone that I barely knew
The child would never really have a father
Oh and I'd be stuck, stuck on u

It took five women to getcha off of my mind
Get off my mind, baby
Fallin' in love all over, you I'll never win

May was her name and she was jumpin'
Jumpin' from plane to plane
She was an actress or model or somethin'
Can't even remember her first name

June brought an Easter bunny
Needless to say, that girl was late Told a million stories to a busy-body of our one and only date

July was a heartbreak, extraordinary
I met this woman whose kiss was somethin' scary
It felt so much, so much like yours
That only made me, made me want you more
She's gone, she's gone but you're still here
I want you very [Incomprehensible]

It took five women to getcha off of my mind
It took five months, a plenty good wasted time

Oh, but it just took five minutes when I saw your face again
To fall in love all over, I guess with you, I'll never win
