A little bit of hope, gone too far
A little bit of pain, leaves a scar
You got yours, I've got yours

A little bit of dream, disappears
When a word like love causes so much fear
I've got mine, you've got mine
The lines all drawn, the time is now
Love will show us how

Tonight, we'll cross that great divide
No turnin' back
Tonight, we'll let our hearts decide
Our souls will follow
With a little bit of luck
We'll take it step by step
If we never give it up
We'll we might get there yet
Tonight, we'll let our hearts decide
(Woo ooo)
We'll cross that great divide

When we lose our trust can we keep our faith
When it's up to us just to dream this way
Wo, I've got mine, you've got mine
Now the lines all drawn, the time is now
Love will show us how

Tonight, we'll cross that great divide
No turnin' back
Tonight, we'll let our hearts decide
Our souls will follow
With a little bit of luck
We'll take it step by step
If we never give it up
Well, we might get there yet
Tonight, we'll let our hearts decide
(Woo ooo)
We'll cross that great divide

I know
I've been there

Tonight, we'll cross that great divide
No turnin' back
Tonight, we'll let our hearts decide
And our souls will follow
With a little bit of luck
Take it step by step
If we never give it up
Well, we might get there yet
Tonight, we'll let our hearts decide
(Woo ooo)
If we'll cross that great divide

(Tonight, we'll cross that great divide)
With a little bit of luck, baby
(Tonight)
Tonight
(We'll cross that great divide)
Let our host decide to know
With a little bit of luck
(Tonight, we'll cross that great divide)
I tell you, I know
(Tonight, we'll cross that great divide)
Cross the way
Tonight
(Tonight, we'll cross that great divide)
(Tonight, we'll cross that great divide)
