Darkness falls. My tears fall like rain.
Blue whistle moans out your name.
Gathering speed, carrying pain.
Look out heart. Here comes that train.

Just like her its a runaway.
Out of controll driving me insane
Barreling down the tracks that my tears laid.
Look out heart. Here comes that train.

Hot burning coals of her memory
just feed the flame that builds the steam.
It drives those wheels right through my brain.
Look out heart. Here comes that train.

Chorus 2x
