I got my first truck when i was three, drove a hundred thousand miles on my knees Hauled marbles and rocks and thought twice before I hauled a barbie doll bed for the girl next door.
She tried to pay me with a kiss and i began to understand,
thers somethin women like about a pick up man

When I turned sixteen I saved a few hundred bucks my first car was a pick up truck I was cruisin' the town and the first girl I see was Bobby Joe Gentry; the homecoming Queen She flagged me down and climbed up in the cab and said
"I never knew you were a pick up man"

Chorus

You could set my truck on fire and roll it down a hill, and I still wouldn't trade it for a Coupe de Ville.
I've got an 8 foot bed that never has to be made,
you know if it weren't for trucks we wouldn't have tail
gates.
I met all my wives in traffic jams there's just somethin
women
like about a pickup man

Most Friday nights I can be found, in the bed of my truck on an old chaise lounge.
Backed into my spot at the drive-in show
You know a cargo-light gives off a romantic glow.
I never have to wait in line at the popcorn stand cause there's somethin' women like about a pickup man

Chorus

You could set my truck on fire and roll it down a hill,
and I still wouldn't trade it for a coupe de ville.
I've got an 8 foot bed that never has to be made,
you know if it weren't for trucks we wouldn't have tail

gates.

I met all my wives in traffic jams, there's just somethin'
women
like about a pickup man

(Bridge)

A bucket of rust or a brand new machine, once around the block and you'll know what I mean

Chorus

You could set my truck on fire and roll it down a hill,
and I still wouldn't trade it for a Coupe de Ville.
I've got an 8 foot bed that never has to be made,
you know if it weren't for trucks we wouldn't have tail
gates.

I met all my wives in traffic jams there's just somethin'
women
like about a pickup man
