Welcome to Earth, third rock from the sun

She walks into Smokey's one hip at a time
Like a broken field runner, slippin' through the line
He likes the way she looks so he calls the little wife
Says, don't wait up for me, I'll be workin' late tonight

Wife hangs up the phone bursts into tears
Calls her sister up and cries get over here

Sister tells her boyfriend be back in a while Boyfriend wants a beer, the store is just a mile
He leaves the motor runnin', he'll only be a minute
His car drives away with teenagers in it

The driver tells his buddies got one life to live
They scream into the night, let's get it over with

Cause and effect, chain of events
All of the chaos makes perfect sense
When you're spinnin' 'round, things come undone
Welcome to Earth, third rock from the sun

The kid guns the gas, car starts to swerve
Hears for the semi truck jumps the curb
Truck hits the big boy in Schoney's parkin' lot
Who flies through the air takes out the bank clock

Clock strikes a light pole transformer sparks
Lines go down, the town goes dark

Waitress calls the cops says, she saw it all
Swears a giant alien has landed at the mall
Cops ring up the Mayor, say there's panic in the streets
We hate to wake you up but we can't find the chief

Mayor says, use your head if he ain't in his car
He's hidin' from his wife down at Smokey's bar

Cause and effect, chain of events
All of the chaos makes perfect sense
When you're spinnin' 'round, things come undone

Welcome to Earth, third rock from the sun

Cause and effect, chain of events

All of the chaos makes perfect sense

When you're spinnin' 'round, things come undone

Welcome to Earth, third rock from the sun

Welcome to Earth, third rock from the sun

Welcome to Earth, third rock from the sun

Welcome to Earth, third rock from the sun
