Aiyo, I'm all fucked up, like them niggaz in the struggle be

I look good on the outside, but got dust in me

I'm vexed, I spent all my life in the projects

You could never know what's next

Even though I rap, I could still go broke

Rob and sell coke

Doing life for catching a body, ain't no joke

Fuck dope, nigga, I used to sell crack

I hate to be like that, but it's real like that

I got locked up mad times in the Hill

I been to Fishscale, Mohawk, Sing-Sing

El Mira, Shock Two

So if you feel like me fuck me, then fuck you

Yeah...
