Hold up, stop
The remix, the remix
Baby, baby
Hold up, stop
The remix, the remix

My dear, my dear, my dear
You do not know me
But I know you very well
Now let me tell you that I caught
Caught, caught, caught, caught you

My dear, my dear, my dear
You do not know me
But I know you very well
Now let me tell you
That I caught you, that I caught you

Talk to me, tell me, where you were
Late, late, late, late, last night?
Ya, ya, ya, you told me
You were with your friends hangin' out
Late, last night

Ya, ya, ya, you're lyin', 'cause you're stutterin'
Now where were you, late last night?
Stop lyin' to me, 'cause you're tickin' me off
See you're tickin' me off

I can tell you're lyin', 'cause when you're replyin'
You stutter, stutter, ss-ss-ss, stutter stutter
I can tell you're lyin', 'cause when you're replyin'
You stutter, stutter, ss-ss-ss, stutter stutter

I can tell you're lyin', 'cause when you're replyin'
You stutter, stutter, ss-ss-ss, stutter stutter
I can tell you're lyin', 'cause when you're replyin'
You stutter, stutter, ss-ss-ss, stutter stutter

Watch yourself, watch yourself
Quit your lying heffer, watch yourself heffer

I called you on your cell phone
No answer, tell me why?
So I paged you on your two way
Still no response, tell me why?

I took care of you, I loved you
And you played me, tell me why?
Stop lyin' to me about where you've been
'Cause you're tickin' me off
Tick, tick, tick, tickin' me off

I can tell you're lyin', 'cause when you're replyin'
You stutter, stutter, ss-ss-ss, stutter stutter

You do not know me
But I know you very well
Now let me tell you that I caught
Caught, caught, caught, caught you

My dear, my dear, my dear
You do not know me
But I know you very well
Now let me tell you
That I caught you, that I caught you

Quit, quit, quit, quit, quit
Quit your lyin' heffer, watch yourself
Yeah, I'll give you the whips
But you leavin' out here by yourself

I'm keepin' it gangsta with all the tattoos and platinum mouth
I was the rapper you heard about strappin' up in the waffle house
Right next to unmeshed whistle when I be sparkin' 'em out
And I'm way too cold to playa let you come dog me out

Should've of knew what you was up to when you got here
Get off my couch, get and I just can't change it
It's gonna be good, get on ya route
My bad, you're out

I, I, I seen it comin' with them nappy hair
She was runnin' with docked out wantin' what you had
You, you, you let him set you up and you fell for it
Now it's "I, I, I, I'm sorry, my A"

That's why you're payin' for it
You got the garbage, I got the trash can for it
The man ain't gon' stand for it
You better respect my flow
Don't be stutterin' when you're talkin' to Mystikal
Or lyin' when you be talkin' to Jo, Jo, Jo, Joe

I smell cologne, damn, it's strong
How did ya get it on? I'm not dumb
He messed up your hair
Makeup's everywhere, ooh, yeah

I'm not dumb, girl, you're cryin'
'Cause you're lyin' to my face
I'm not dumb, stop lyin' to me
About seein' a man, 'cause you're tickin' me off
Tick, tick, tick, tickin' me off

I can tell, ooh
You were lyin', you were cheatin' and deceivin'
(I can tell)
Ooh, yeah yeah
(I can tell)
Ooh, baby

My dear, my dear, my dear
You do not know me
But I know you very well
Now let me tell you
That I caught you, that I caught you

Talk to me, tell me, where you were
Late, late, late, late, last night?
Ya, ya, ya, you told me
You were with your friends hangin' out
Late, last night

My dear, my dear, my dear
You do not know me
But I know you very well
Now let me tell you
That I caught you, that I caught you

Talk to me, tell me, where you were
Late, late, late, late, last night?
Ya, ya, ya, you told me
You were with your friends hangin' out
Late, last night
